

The proposed elimination of cross-ownership rules is a threat to our democracy. Democracy requires an active, informed citizenry and a diverse and critical press. Especially in a time of war, the survival of our nation depends on citizens having free and easy access to a broad range of news and opinions. Please stop this detestable assault on democracy and freedom of the press.